Family Perspective

*Today's gospel speaks of light and darkness.
Often a parent is deliberately "left in the dark."
Darkness can be comforting for it makes no demands on us. Light can be disturbing for it forces us to take action. Parents walk a delicate balance of when to "sit in the dark," and when to turn on the lights.*

*Let us remember and pray for all the faithful departed who died recently, especially Joseph Fitzpatrick and Joseph Menichello.
May their souls and the souls of all of our faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.*

Understanding the Gift of Plenary Indulgences begins with recognizing why one is needed in the first place: Sin.

Sin encompasses intentional thoughts, words, deeds, or omissions that contradict God's law of loving goodness. Whenever we choose to sin, we bring upon ourselves the consequences of our actions. These consequences may vary, depending on the nature of the sin. However, regardless of the severity, all sins inflict some degree of harm upon our souls, damage our relationships with others, and most significantly, impact our relationship with God both in this life and the next. Fortunately, we are blessed with a merciful and loving Father who generously forgives us. He grants us His saving help, called 'grace', enabling us to overcome sin and enjoy eternal life with Him in heaven.

But how do we receive God's grace? He imparts this grace to us through His Church. We receive it through the sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Communion, as well as through prayer and various other means. One such means is the reception of an Indulgence. An Indulgence is the partial remission of the consequences of our sins, achieved through the Church's intercession on our behalf before God. The Pope, as the head of the Body of Christ, has the authority to grant us indulgences, serving as a manifestation of God's abundant mercy.

A Plenary Indulgence, though, differs from an ordinary Indulgence in that it goes a step further. Plenary Indulgences cover the entirety of the temporal consequences of our sins. This encompasses both the earthly ramifications and the eternal ones - meaning no Purgatory for us! However, it is important to note that a Plenary Indulgence is not a "get out of jail free" card nor a license to freely engage in sin. True contrition remains an essential condition for receiving an Indulgence.
